Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThis book is specially designed in 's fixed-layout KF8 format with region magnification. Double-tap on an area of text to zoom and read.Bringing to life turn-of-the-century New York and the scintillating career of one of its most famous architects, as well as the vices that cost him his life, this true-crime graphic novel tells the story of one of the most scandalous murders of the times. Stanford White was one of New Yorks most famous architects, having designed many mansions and the first Madison Square Garden; his influence on New Yorks look at the turn of the century was pervasive. As he became popular and in demand, he also became quite self-indulgent: he had a taste for budding young showgirls on Broadway, even setting up a private apartment to entertain them in, including a room with a red velvet swing. When he met Evelyn Nesbitan exquisite young nymph, cover girl, showgirl, inspiration for Charles Dana Gibsons drawing The Eternal Question and later for the movie The Girl in the Red Velvet Swinghe knew he was on to something special. However, Evelyn eventually married a young Pittsburgh decadent heir with a dark side who developed a deep hatred for White and what he may or may not have done to her.
