Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThis third collection of plays by Tom Stoppard contains his television plays, written between 1965 and 1984. They show that Stoppard's writing for the small screen is comparable to his more celebrated stage work, as the masterly Professional Foul demonstrates. In his introduction the author briefly describes how the individual pieces came to be written and the circumstances of their original production.Prsentation de l'diteurThis third collection of plays by Tom Stoppard contains his television plays, written between 1965 and 1984.
