Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurAn international bestseller and winner of the Georgette Heyer Historical Novel Prize.

A magnificent, twisting, turning love story unfolds amid the exotic splendour of the British Raj. Englishwoman Laura Hewitt accompanies her newly engaged cousin to India, first to Calcutta and then to the fabled fiefdom of Oliver Erskine, Zemindar or hereditary ruler of a private kingdom with its own army. But India is on the verge of the Mutiny, which will sweep them all up in its chaos. Revue de presse'Utterly addictive ... Leaves us panting for the sequel' --The Washington Post'If you loved The Far Pavilions - and who didn't - this will be your dish too' --Cosmopolitan'Written with great attention to detail, and the amazingly beautiful descriptions of India really bring it to life. It is an exceptionally gripping and enjoyable
